The shepherd method is the method of missions--the spirit of sacrifice, even to death if need be; the spirit of love, that deals with individuals sympathetically; the spirit of catholicity, that reaches out into all the world. As we have this spirit in our Christian work, we are missionaries after the manner of Christ. World-wide Brotherhood. Was there ever a day when, not for all men one by one, for the wants of their individual homes and hearts, but in one great mass of want, the world's need of Christ was so sharp and imperious as it is to-day? Who but Jesus Christ can ever bind this torn and discordant world together? We tried to do it with trade, and it could not be done. We tried to do it with diplomacy, but diplomacy failed. We have tried to do it with secular education, but secular education has been unequal to the task. There is only one way in which the world can 1 ever be united in one: and I, if I be lifted up from the earth, said Jesus Christ, will draw all men unto me. In the one Head of all humanity, the one Shepherd of the whole flock of every race and every people and every tongue--only there can any hope of human unity ever be found. In a day when we are weary of strife and hatred and war, the need of the world...
