All these and many more influences all working together must be taken into consideration to determine a proper opportunity. I wish we could pause a little in our consideration of what is best for Delta Gamma and give our attention to the universities and colleges where chapters of Delta Gamma are located. Why cannot each chapter honestly and conscientiously make a study of conditions in its particular university with a view to pursuing unselfishly a policy of helpfulness which will tend to reduce materially the criticism now so rampant against fraternities t As I see it our duty to our universities is twofold; to see that the chapters already established are serving the best interests of the university and to give the benefits of fraternity organization to a greater number of students. May Delta Gamma lead in the pursuance of these two objects.--Anchora of Delta Gamma. The February number of the Trident of A A A contains a Panhellenic round table. The articles deal with sorority courtesy, cooperation, and opportunity. A K 2 father wrote a few lines for the Caduceus and it seems fitting to include it within our pages. Write home l The average undergraduate, thank God, has a home and a father and a mother. If it wasn t for father and mother and the home he wouldn t be an undergraduate. The only reason why he can remain in college and pay his frat dues is because father and...
