Good News Publishers, United States, 2015. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 137 x 89 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Few people have been more sincere than I in trying-- without success--to find meaning, truth, and purpose in life. At the university I noticed a small group of people--eight students and two faculty members--who seemed different. They seemed to know what they believed and why. I wanted what I saw. Two weeks later, while I was sitting with some of them in the student union, the conversation turned to God. That bothered me, because I thought it was not intellectual. And yet I was curious. Leaning back in my chair, I said to one of the students, Tell me, what has made you so different from others? She looked me in the eye with a little smile and said, Jesus Christ! My response revealed my bias and my ignorance. Oh, for heaven s sake, I said. Don t give me that garbage about religion! She replied, I didn t say religion. I said Jesus Christ. My new friends challenged me to examine the claims of Christ. I thought most Christians were idiots. But these people were persistent. Finally, I accepted their challenge, but I did so out of pride, to refute them. One of the claims I researched was Christ s resurrection. And after more than one thousand hours of study, I concluded that the resurrection of Jesus Christ was either one of the most vicious hoaxes ever foisted upon human minds or the most fantastic fact of history. Jesus of Nazareth, a Jewish prophet, claimed to be the Christ prophesied in the Jewish Scriptures. He was arrested, judged a political criminal, and crucified. Three days after his death and burial, some women went to his tomb and found his...
