Empyrion Publishing, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Join teens, Jim and Frank, on a weekend camping trip as they experience what it means to spend one day with Jesus. They also learn first-hand from their dad how to navigate the controversial issues of today's current events, from clarification of our Pledge of Allegiance to discrimination laws to ISIS and other deceptions. Listen in as a loving father mentors his teenage sons in the ways of a Christian amidst the ways of the world. As Christians we should not be troubled by what we see happening in the world today. The Lord said these things must come to pass. It is not the end of the world yet. The end will be when He returns and no man will know the hour. Live your life according to the will of man as long as it is in accordance with God's Word. America will not be exempt from the things that are about to happen. In fact, it will have a big part in it. Unfortunately, the rich do not see and the poor do not understand. But we, as Christians, are to rejoice and be glad in it.
