Excerpt: . . . up his ears when Methodists mention Hank He is held in honor for his many social qualities, wise energy and ability. He is tall, spare, erect and composed. His sermons are vertebrated. There is bone in them, but not wholly skeleton. There is grace and finish. The delivery is grave, measured and magnetic. We have had the favor of a charming narrative from him covering an interesting period of his life, which we use as superior to any notes of our own: I am the eldest son of Rev. Jehu Hank of the Baltimore Conference. I was born in Louisa county, Va. , on the 13th of October, 1835, while my father, then a member of the Virginia Conference, was preacher in charge of that circuit. In 1837, my father was appointed to. Caswell circuit, North Carolina, and consequently fell into the North Carolina Conference, by the division of the Conferences which occurred that year. He located the same year on account of failing health, and settled in Monroe county, West Virginia. There my boyhood was spent on my fathers farm attending such schools as the country afforded. I professed religion when I was ten years old at a Quarterly Meeting held at Mount Horeb church in Monroe county, under the ministry of Revs. Adam Bland and James Aiken of the Baltimore Conference, and united with the Methodist Episcopal church immediately. I was licensed to exhort by Rev. Edmund H. Warren, of the Baltimore Con...
