Lesson xx josepb Sends for Wis jf atber Stanza three: For lines one and two scamper the fingers back and forth on the lap. Clasp the hands on the lap and sing the remaining lines. The story: Once there was a boy who had been away from home a long, long time. He did not go away from home because he wanted to, but because some wicked men took him away. He was very lonely in the strange land where he had to live. Often he cried as he thought of his father at home. He remembered how good he had always been to him. He thought of the good times he had had playing with his little brother. He thought of his ten older brothers who had not always been kind to him, but he loved them, too. He often used to think of the beautiful coat his father gave him when he was a little fellow. Often he cried when he thought of his home and his father s tents on the hillside with the sheep and goats feeding near. A long, long time he stayed in this strange land. Sometimes people were very good to him, but not always. Once they put him into prison, although he had not done anything wrong. He was a good boy always, and by and by the king of that strange country said, You must come and live with me in my palace. I will make...
