The following two letters probably represent both extremes: (1) I done more business through the dull seasons than I am doing now. The reason is this, every cheap man with a cheap stallion is out peddling from house to house and cutting prices. I know of a man that has lost the-use of his mare for three years from using counterfeit stallions. If a counterfeit stallion didn t come around, they would go to one. I have been in the business for some time, but it gets worse every year. (2) I traded for another horse June 25th, and I put him on the road June 26th and bred 56 mares and could have bred 100 mares...
