Excerpt: . . . and no one on the sidewalk offered to take the poor little dog. There was nothing for Jimmie to do but to carry the dog to his own home, which was six blocks away. Of course he knew he would miss the parade, and oh, how bad he did feel about that! He ran all the way home, made the little dog a soft bed in a box, and then started after the parade. But he was too late. He had lost so much time that when at last he caught up with the boy scouts, they had reached the end of the line of march. Oh, how disappointed he was! That night there was a scout meeting and, of course, Jimmie went. He was a little late, for he had stopped to help his father set the little dogs broken leg. When he...
