Diary of a Sorority House Mom

By ANN HYMAN

WEH PUBLISHING. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 374 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 1.0in. When Ann Hyman began her career as a house director in the fall of 2006, she couldn't wait to see if sorority girls still painted each other's nails, traded clothes, and made pacts not to date sisters' old boyfriends. She was thrilled to find those traditions still existed. She was impressed by the women of the chapter. Many carried full class loads, worked multiple jobs, held campus offices and competed on collegiate athletic teams while maintaining one of the highest grade point averages on campus. This house was filled with beauty queens, study geeks, social butterflies, jocks, fraternity sweethearts, dance team members and everything in between. Without membership in this sorority, they might never have met. Yet, they became true sisters in every sense of the word. Study groups congregated throughout the building, Tudor marathons ran in the TV room, shouts of Fins UP! announced the beginning of Shark Week, tiny bikini-clad beauties sunned themselves on the patio, and giggles mingled with music filled the air. Food Nazis demanded no nitrates, nitrites, GMOs or other additives in their foods, but scarfed down French fries and multiple...
